Synopsis: Do you enjoy hosting friends and family around your table? Are you stuck in the same table-setting routine and looking for a little inspiration?

Do you feel you need to take out a loan for every dinner party you host?

In Must.Love.Guests. Let Your Inner Hostess Shine, celebrated designer and world-traveler Michèle Salhab Souhaid shows you how to add that extra wow factor to your table without breaking the bank.

Through lavish illustrations, a modern take on hosting etiquette and a plethora of practical tips and recipes, you will learn to:

- Design a unique table that reflects your personal taste and style
- Transform everyday objects into beautiful decorative pieces
- Create a warm ambiance and a specific theme for every occasion you can dream of
- Apply the basic rules of table and hosting etiquette
- Mix various elements from different cultures to yield a beautiful eclectic whole

If you're ready to work your magic as a hostess, you've reached your starting point. Read this book if you want your table to speak for you.

About the author: Michèle Salhab Souhaid has close to two decades of experience in hospitality, event planning, mood creation and more. From sumptuous weddings and presidential dinners to corporate gatherings and casual brunches, her repertoire is as diverse as her color palette.

The Michèle special is invariably prepared with a hefty dose of passion and almost always include an element of surprise. Her events are peppered with beauty, flair and sophistication, all while remaining practical and affordable.
